Stanley's Sweetheart.

London, May 19 .- The report of the engagement of Henry M. Stanley to Miss Dorothy Tennant was a genuine surprise. The lady resides with her mother in a handsome house at No. 1102 Richmond terrace. She is 30 years old, and the daughter of the late Charles Tennant, M. P., who left ber abundant wealth. Miss Tennant is a devoted artist and an accomplished writer. She was a contributor to the Pall Mall Gazette during Mr. Stead's time. Miss Tennant modestly acknowledged to-day that Mr. Stanley and herself were pledged to each other. The attachment began long ago, and the engagement was made before Stanley's last departure for Africa. The marriage ceremony, she said, would take place in London early in July-the exact date was as yet unfixed. Miss Tennant said their union would not affect Stanley's Africa.

The Queen has written a gracious letter of congratulation to Henry M. Stanley on the occasion of the announcement of his betrothal to a lady "in every way estimable and charming." Strong pressure will now be brought to bear upon the explorer to induce him to retire on his lanrels and make his home in England, becoming a British subject. He will

Cabinet in advising the King to act in accordance with the advice of the Supreme Court.

Minister Ashford-I did originally always join with the Cabinet in advising King according to the opinion of the Supreme Court. But I repudiate the idea that it was because of the advice of the before the Supreme Court opinion was rendered. Rep. Rosa, continuing-The answer is somewhat evasive. Minister Ashford-Not at all. If answer is not satisfactory I will make it so.

Minister Thurston-Last August His Majesty refused to act according to the advice of the Cabinet. We submitted the question to the Supreme Court and it decided. We presented that decision to the King and advised him he was bound to act.

Rep. Rosa-I have not spoken much important that I must express myself in it. The amendment proposed by Rep. Brown involves a principle, and I rise to advocate that principle. The Attorney-General agreed with his colleagues until of His Majesty's prejudice against this Cabinet and of the Hawaiian's ignorance of a Treaty they knew nothing about. With all Mr. Gibson's faults he respected the Supreme Court. Now, the new comer comes and for the first time in the history of this country, there is a viola-tion of the unwritten law. The future of this country is dearer to me than that of the Attorney-General. Now, he comes and says his acts were constitutional notwithstanding the opinion of the Supreme Court. Now, if we do not support this amendment he can go forth and say that the House has justified his course. A point I have always recognized is that Hawaiians should be recognized in the Cabinet. I was not in favor of the resolution, but now it has come. I am in favor of taking it for what it was worth. So far as I can discover I think the Government has been run fairly well, apart from their dissensions. I see no reason for the resolution of want of confidence. The "troops" clause I do not believe eminated from the Cabinet. I was tolerably well satisfied with the explanation made at that time. I do not think the Hawaiians are opposed to the Treaty except perhaps with regard to the knowledge and consent clause. It is the policy of the United States to recognize the Polynesian ruces, and I am in favor of continuing friendly rela-

Minister Ashford-My esteemed friend Rep. Rosa is not very consistent. He thinks the Ministry ought to go, and im-mediately thinks that nobody ought to go except myself. He thinks that would make a good vacancy for himself, and that would conciliate things and then we would have the best Cabinet on earth and everything would go on swimmingly. Mr. President, the member from Waialua is already making his preparations for his huli maiana (sic). If by selling his country and hauling down its flag he can get into the Cabinet, he is going to do it would have chosen Hawaii. As it is I invite a comparison between my patriotism and that of the member from Waialua and these two gentlemen in the Cabinet who were born here and boast of it. Mr. President, I am one of a nation which never goes back on their own flag nor on that of their adoption, and I am not going to set the example. We read in Scripture of a man who sold his Saviour for thirty pieces of silver, and I never look at the member from Waialua without thinking of that man. Noble Baldwin has a very large axe to grind-he could not get me to help him grind to, and so he has no use for me too.

tions with the United States.

Rep. Brown-I rise to a point of order and if you know the rules of the House, Mr. Attorney-General, you will sit down. Minister Ashford- I will when the Chair tells me to.

The President rules Rep. Brown out of

The Attorney-General- I wish my remarks translated.

Rep. Brown-I rise to a point of order, first because he has spoken twice. I am perfectly willing to hear the Attorney General, but when he descends to low personality, I object. Second, he ought to refer to Mr. Baldwin as Noble Baldwin and not brother in-law Baldwin, and I think the Attorney-General knows enough to know that.

President rules point well taken. Rep. Bush thought if there was any Anglo-Saxon tairness in this House let us have it. Everyone knows this Cabinet is a disgrace, and who dares deny it. This is an attempt to retain a portion of a Cabinet which all admit is a disgrace to us. I saw that treaty myseli. I know because my advice was asked. They are all guilty, all a disgrace, and have not even been able to deny all the charges which have been made. They have made efforts to influence members of this House. I can't see where principle comes in. If one is wrong, all are wrong. Not a member of that Cabinet has had the audacity to vindicate the Suprem · Court.

Rep. White moves the previous ques-Lost.

Minister Thurston had not intended to speak again, and would not if the Attorney-General had not gone out of his way to falsify facts. (Attorney-General -is that language parliamentary?) I have sat here and listened to his charges and now he must listen to mine.

Minister Ashford-I rise to a point of order. Language is unparliamentary. Minister Thurston-Circumstance he refers to is the Hamakua Ditch Co.

Rep. Brown-I will say a few words-

Minister Ashford-I rise to a point of order. The gentleman has spoken once. Rep. Brown- A few words as to the defense of the Attorney-General. He speaks of his love for this country. I mycareer. She would not permit their self think it is a love for the office which marriage to cut short his labors in he holds and expects to hold when the Cabinet goes out The treaty which the Government proposed to negotiate could not have been ratified without the consent of this House. Article 29 of the Constitution provides that treaties affecting tariff can only be entered into with consent of the Legislature. Therefore, mated with the assistance of the Legislature. (Minister Ashford: I should like to ask a que-tion.) After I am through y u can ask all the questions you like. (Minister Ashford: Will you answer (Minister Ashford: them?) If I can: I am not as smart as also be arged to accept the honor of you are. Article 69 says the decision of Supreme Court shall be binding on all parties. Parties here are the Ministers. If the Attorney-General had not been so fond of his seat, he would have stepped out when he could not agree with his col-

Rep. Kauhi-Sorry I have got the floor so late because I intended to make a long speech. But I see the House is tired and so I will not speak more than four minutes. We must be perfectly impartial, must not know our triends. The Attorney-General and the Minister of the Interior have given us a great deal of secret history. In regard to the treaty Supreme Court. My advice was given the honorable member from Waialua was violently opposed to it, but now he is in favor of it. I wish to know whether there was a clause in the treaty about troops. (Minister Austin-There was a clause attached to the treaty which was rejected). (Minister Ashford-The rejection came when we made our reply to the committee). Who prepared this proposed draft? (Minister Austin-Mr. Carter). Where was that prepared? (Minister Austin-Here). Did not Mr. Carter meet the Cabinet and make draft in presence of Ministers? (Minister Austin-No. Matter was talked over with this session, but the question now is so Mr. Carter and he was requested to prepare a draft and did so). When Mr. Carter submitted the draft did Carter reject it? (Minister Austin-It was discussed and the form was fixed which it finally took. The whole matter is before a relative was involved, then he aban-doned the Ministers and took advantage about troops were to be attached later about troops were to be attached later after the King has signed as the Attor-ney-General stated. (Minister Austin-I haven't heard any such statement) Is it true that Mr. Carter wrote advising the Cabinet to drop the treaty until it could be known what action Congress would take on the tariff. (Minister Austin-If the member will put his questions in writing as the rules require, they will be answered in due course). A great deal has been said about Article 41. I don't care what lawyers say. I read it; meaning that resolution must be of want of confidence in the entire Cabinet. Rep. White moves previous question carried. The ayes and noes were called for. Rep. Kapaehaole says owing to previous question, I could not explain my position. A resolution of want of confidence alleges only differences between members of the Cabinet. The amendment states two grounds against the Attorney-General. The question is whether the House is going to allow a single member of the Cabinet to block the wheels of the Government. I think the House should pass a law to prevent the recurrence of such difficulties. A great deal has been said as to the action of the Attorney-General. Some approve and say he was patriotic. I cannot look into his heart, but I notice his patriotism dates from the time when the Cabinet opposed the re-nomination of his brother, and I must say it is the same with the other Ministers. They said nothing about these schemes until the trouble with the Attorney-General. I see there are a great many white men in the police.

The vote on the amendment was then taken as follows: Ayes — Kauhane, J. M. Horner, Hind, Parker, Marsden, Bald-win, W. Y. Horner, Cornwell, Walbridge, Anderson, von Tempsky, G. N. Wilcox, Kanoa, Isenberg, Brown, Rosa, A. Horner, Rickard, Waipuilani, Apiki, Halstead, Knudsen, Rice, A. S. Wilcox -24.

Noes-Widemann, Cummins, Walker, Macfarlane, Muller, Pua, McCarthy Phillips, Crabbe, Burchardt, Cummings, Marques, Lucas, R. W. Wilcox, Bush, Kauhi, Nawahi, Baker, Kahookano, Paehaole, White, Kanealii, Kalua, Kamai

Minister Thurston-I rise to a question of privilege. I had hoped that the House would assert principle involved in this amendment, but it has not done so. For myself and my two colleagues, the Minister of Foreign Affairs and the Minister of Finance, I would state that we cannot continue to conduct the affairs of the Government with a divided Cabinet, and a narrow majority as now, and I therefore state on their behalf and mine that we resign.

Minister Ashford-I am extremely glad to be able even at this late day to commend the action of my colleagues. While I thank the House for not having passed the vote of want of confidence in me I feel that anyone in forming a new Cabinet will be embarrassed by the presence of an existing incumbent. My own resignation will therefore be ready as soon as my colleagues.

The House adjourned at 11 P.M.

The House met again on Saturday and also on Monday, but on both occasions no business was transact-d; and to-day probably business will be resumed if the new Ministry is formed.

The Combined Concert.

There was an immense attendance at the combined concert by the U.S. Charleston and Hawaiian bands at the Hotel on Friday evening. The grounds were literally packed with human beings and the verandas were crowded. The front of the building was illuminated with colored lanterns.

The first part of the programme consisted of two pieces by each band. The playing of our own boys needs no comment. The Charleston band numbered seventeen pieces, under the direction of Mr. Carlo. Its playing was really excellent and received by the audience with marks of approbation. When the two bands played together there was a fine volume of tone. The concert was a great suc-
